

After your baby's birth

Information booklet for mums & families

This information pack is designed for women who are going home from hospital, following the birth of their baby in Suffolk and North East Essex.

We recommend you read this booklet before you leave hospital.

This pack should be given to you by your midwives, along with any relevant information and contact numbers you may need.