

Birth reflections

Information about your pregnancy and birth to discuss with your midwife or doctor

Use the space below to write down any significant concerns (medical, emotional or other) about your experience of pregnancy, labour, birth and immediately after birth – particularly if you think it could have an effect on your long term physical or emotional health, or the health of your baby. Share your concerns with your midwife or doctor.